

The best wine I've ever had is the one I haven't tasted yet.

- Chef Keira Moritz

Wine in Italy has been a part of the fabric of everyday life for thousands of years and is an integral part of the meal.

Just as Chef Keira Moritz shares her passion for favorites from her menu, we share a tailored list that is carefully selected to complement her menu.

Our list includes wines from Italy as well as local wines grown from our part of the world to enhance your culinary experience at Pacci.

We hope you enjoy.

Molto Bene

Wines with a "🍷" are made using sustainable or organic practices.

All wines by the glass are available by the half glass, glass, carafe, or bottle.

Wines with a  symbol have been awarded the Tre Bicchieri, or three cups, award from the Gambero Rosso. This is the highest distinction for an Italian wine in Italy.

Blends

In the spirit of exploration, many wine makers are branching out of the traditional varietals for their region and blending them with others. Unlike a Meritage, which is made from Bordeaux grapes, these wines are made up of varietals that find their home all over Europe. Super Tuscans superseded the traditional Chiantis in reputation, making wine makers all over the world consider breaking out of the norm. Here we represent some of the greatest Super Tuscans as well as some "Super Californian's".
